ADDRESS

By the Legislature of Wisconsin to the People of the State.

(Concluded from Saturday.)

As a political organization the loyal democrats have nothing to do with it whatever.

Its present treatment is one purely military.

Its future consideration will be urged, before competent tribunals, or disposed of by the direct course of events beyond the control of political action. The Union must be preserved, even if slavery should be sacrificed in the dreadful contest.

As a time of great trial and calamity, of national suffering and sorrow, and a crisis of fearful peril to the Union, and it might have added infinite stranger terms to express the appalling dangers of our condition; yet in such a moment when it was so necessary to unite all patriotic citizens, it forbids and forbids no differences of party opinion, but it recalls and reminds them all. The fearful peril calls for an amnesty of party animosities, and an offer of peace for past differences of opinion. At the moment of its appearance concentration was the overriding thought of the people. Instead, however, of this, the address becomes a sweeping and ungracious accusation against an immense body of the loyal people of the north who, as it would appear from the returns, have furnished our armies with so many of our defenders.

The charges are leveled upon abolitionists and republicans, and the traitors of the south may feel themselves compensated for what is said of them in the vindictive abuse heaped upon so large a class in the very armies sent to suppress them. Indeed, the document is a gross insult to the very appeal to our love of country and duty to our government; while the whole tone of its paragon is throughout brutal, oppressive and threatening. Its terms are de-

The Daily Gazette.

City of Janesville.

Monday Evening, Sept. 21, 1863.

Official Paper of the City.

REPUBLICAN UNION NOMINATIONS

FOR GOVERNOR, JAMES T. LEWIS, of Columbia County; FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, WYMAN SPOONER, of Walworth County; FOR SECRETARY OF STATE, LUCIUS FAIRCHILD, of Dane County; FOR STATE TREASURER, SAMUEL D. HASTINGS, of Trempealeau County; FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, WINFIELD SMITH, of Milwaukee County; FOR BANK COMPTROLLER, W. H. RAMSEY, of Oconto County; SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION, JOSIAH L. PICKARD, of Grant County; FOR STATE PRISON COMMISSIONER, HENRY CORDIER, of Winnebago County.

ASSEMBLY NOMINATIONS.

Fifth District—Composed of the city of Janesville, J. W. STORREY.

The Great Battle.

The news, to-day, from Gen. Rosecrans' army is to the effect that a great battle was fought on Saturday, and that it resulted in the success of the rebels so far as to drive our forces back to Chattanooga. The rebels were, however, foiled in their attempt to get in the rear of our army and cut them off.

We hope it will turn out that the Louisville telegram too highly colors the disaster, when it says that Rosecrans' army was "badly beaten." There is no certainty that there was any battle on Sunday.

Col. Heg, of our 15th, was wounded, and Capt. Searls, of Gen. Starkweather's staff, was killed.

Republican Nominee for the Assembly.

The republican convention, at its adjourned meeting Saturday evening, nominated J. W. STORREY as the candidate for the assembly from this district. The proceedings of the convention will be found in another column. Mr. Storrey is an old resident of the city, familiar with all its interests, a gentleman of intelligence, thoroughly loyal in all his associations and impulses, and will make not only a faithful local representative, but an intelligent and faithful legislator for the state. His nomination should receive the cordial and united support of the republicans of the city, and his election left to no doubt or contingency.

What the Rebels Expect of Vallandigham.

The traitor ex-Lieutenant Maury, in his recent letter to the London Times, apologizing for the recent rebel defeat, thus states what the rebels expect of Vallandigham: "Vallandigham waits and watches over the border, plied, if elected governor of the state of Ohio, to array it against Lincoln and the war, and go for peace. The result of the election there will be, I cannot tell, but the canvass is going on, and we know that opposition to Lincoln and his war party is growing more and more popular every day, and throughout the whole north."

The copperhead state convention of Wisconsin "wait and watch" for the same thing. They sympathize with Maury in the fate of Vallandigham. Hence Wisconsin traitors say, in their platform:—"We hold his [Vallandigham's] nomination by the democracy of Ohio, for the office of governor of that state, to have been a notable act of popular assertion of popular rights against military despotism."

Doubtless the Wisconsin copperheads expect the same thing of H. L. Palmer, if he should be elected, that Maury does of Vallandigham, that is, "to array the state against Lincoln and the war." Why not, if the war is as "unholy a war as ambition could devise or tyranny inflict," as their platform intimates?

It is plain that the desires, wishes and sympathies of the rebels in arms are precisely the same as those of their peace brethren in Wisconsin.

This being so, can any man be wholly and entirely a patriot, who votes with the copperheads of this state, at this present election, or who suffers himself to be nominated by them and placed upon their disloyal platform?

A SEPTEMBER SNOW-STORM.—The Chicago Journal says that Saturday morning's train over the Michigan Central railroad brought an inch of snow upon the car-roofs, gathered in the vicinity of Michigan City, where, it is reported, an inch of snow fell Friday night, to the great damage of fruit and corn.

We regret to learn from telegraphic dispatches that Capt. Lu. H. Drury, of the 3d Wisconsin battery, and chief of artillery on Van Cleve's staff, has been dangerously wounded in the bowels by a sharpshooter.

Almasco Day—Clear and pleasant.

Republican Assembly Convention.

SEPTEMBER 19th, 1863—7 P. M.

Convention called to order pursuant to adjournment and proceeded with the balloting.

Sixty-second ballot resulted as follows: Merrill 12, Patterson 9, Calver 5.

Sixty-third ballot resulted in Merrill receiving 10, Calver 10, Patterson 6.

Sixty-fourth ballot same as 63d.

It was moved that J. W. Storrey be declared the nominee of the convention. Motion lost—noes 15; ayes 11.

In the 65th, 66th and 67th ballots there was no material change from the last previous ballot.

Mr. Conrad then moved that the next ballot be confined to new candidates. Carried.

Sixty-eighth ballot resulted in J. W. Storrey receiving 14, Patterson 2, Bates 5, Comstock 1, Calver 4.

Mr. J. W. STORREY was declared the unanimous nominee of the convention.

The chair appointed the following district committee: At large—Hiram Bowen, Chairman.

First Ward—A. B. Burpee. Second Ward—A. C. Cutts. Third Ward—J. C. Fredendall. Fourth Ward—J. B. Cassaday.

Mr. Conrad offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the republican central committee of the city of Janesville are hereby instructed, when calling conventions, to take as the basis of representation the republican vote of the several wards at the last preceding election.

Mr. Poord offered the following amendment: Amended by striking out the words "central committee" and insert in lieu thereof "fifth assembly district committee."

Amendment lost—noes 15; ayes 11.

Mr. Barnes moved to lay the resolution on the table. Lost—noes 14; ayes 12.

Mr. Comstock moved to amend by striking out the "instructed" and insert "requested." Lost—noes 14; ayes 12.

Mr. Putnam called for the previous question, which resulted as follows: Ayes 12; noes 12—lost.

Mr. Barnes moved to adjourn. Lost—noes 12; ayes 12.

The question was then taken on the adoption of the resolution, which was lost—noes 10; ayes 16.

The convention then adjourned.

S. C. BURNHAM, Chairman. C. E. CHURCH, Secretary.

Great Harmony in the Democratic Rank—C. E. Church, Secretary.

To illustrate the great harmony that exists in the democratic ranks, and to show the estimate in which the News is held by the great head of the copperhead church, we copy what follows from the Madison Patriot, which sufficiently explains itself: E. G. RYAN, ESQ., AND THE MILWAUKEE NEWS.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 10, 1863. Messrs. Carpenter & Hyatt—GENTLEMEN:—

The proprietors of the Milwaukee News, who under the influence which controls that party, publish attacks upon the democratic party, published individual democrats, themselves included, when such attacks tend to the defeat of the party, refuse me the personal justice of publishing the enclosed communication, on the ground that it is an unjust and ungenerous attack upon themselves. I have, therefore, to request of you to print it in your next issue of the Patriot. If, for any reason, you deem it unadvisable to publish it as a communication—for which I have no claim upon you—please to print it in your paper as an advertisement, and send me your charge, which I will thankfully pay. In either case, please also to insert this note as my reason for sending my communication to the Patriot.

Yours truly, E. G. RYAN.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 10, 1863. Messrs. LYON & PAUL, Gentlemen:—

You published in this morning's News, a garbled statement of a passage which took place some months ago, during the trial of a cause in which I was a party. This cause was a matter of purely private concern, in which the public had no interest. You asked the license of the press in doing so, with the purpose of exposing my private affairs to newspaper controversy.

You profess to publish a democratic paper. You decline to defend me in it against political assaults, and publish in it political assaults against me. Of this I do not complain, because I have ceased to believe your paper to be in the interest of the democratic party. But I have a right to complain of the treacherous use of my name and my affairs for the purpose of exposing me and them to public controversy.

I believe the course of your paper to be, in a great degree, if not wholly controlled by the most active and dangerous enemy of the democratic party, who happens, also, to be my personal enemy. I have, therefore, to request you to omit my name and affairs from your newspaper. I am a mere private citizen; I have no ambition for newspaper notice, and I distrust you.

As you have seen fit to expose me to the suspicion of thrusting private concerns before the public, and may do so again, I have to request you to publish this note in your next number.

E. G. RYAN.

MA. SMITH'S RESOLUTION.—The following is the resolution offered by A. Hyatt Smith in the war democratic convention, which was omitted in our report of the proceedings:

Resolved, That we heartily concur with E. G. Ryan in his estimate of the party character and standing of the Milwaukee News. That we also believe that it has ceased to be in the interest of the democratic party, but on the contrary is controlled in a great degree, if not wholly, by the most dangerous enemies of the democratic party. We join Mr. Ryan in warning all the democrats to distrust its teachings.

FEELING OF EAST TENNESSEANS.—The Nashville Union says the following dialogue actually occurred a few days ago, in that city between an East Tennessean loyalist and a Mississippian "butterer," who was brought in with other prisoners:

Mississippian.—What do you expect to do with us southerners? East Tennessean.—"Why we mean to whip you, we mean to whip you badly." Miss.—"But if you are so sure you can whip us, why is it that you have to call in the niggers to help you out of the scrape?" East T.—"Why, our white men are too valuable to risk in battle against rebels. We want to save 'em, sir! But niggers are plenty good to shoot traitors with. We want to save 'em, sir! But niggers are plenty good enough to shoot traitors with. We mean to save our white folks, and whip you like the very devil with your own niggers. And the niggers will do the job up brown. Before the war is over they will knock the blind sights off you, and we intend to stand by and see the job well done."

Last Night's Report.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES, GRANTVILLE, GA., Sept. 19.

A desperate engagement commenced this morning at 11 o'clock. The rebels made a heavy attack on the corps of Gen. Thomas, forming the left wing of our army, and at the same time they attacked the right wing, which was thought to be a feint.

Gen. McCook's and Gen. Crittenden's troops were thrown into the engagement as convenience offered, the main portion of their forces being on the march at the time.

The fight on the left was of a very desperate character. The enemy was repulsed, but on being reinforced regained their position, from which they were subsequently driven after a severe engagement of an hour and a half. Gen. Thomas' forces then charged the rebels for nearly a mile, pushing them badly. About 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the rebels made a fierce dash on our centre, composed of the divisions of Gen. Van Cleve and Reynolds.

Gen. Van Cleve's forces were struck on the right flank, and being vigorously pushed by the rebels, fell back until Gen. Carter's line was broken, and the troops became much scattered.

Gen. Thomas, on the left, and Gen. Davis, on the right, then pushed forward their forces vigorously towards the gap, and, after a hard fight, recovered the ground which had been lost on the extreme left. The fight discovered the intention of the rebels, which evidently was to get between us and Chattanooga.

The general engagement, which commenced at 11 o'clock a. m., ended at about 6 p. m.

Gen. Palmer, who had gathered together our scattered forces, and Gen. Negley, who had been sent from the right flank to feel the center, pushed forward and established our line as it had been before the battle began, along the Chickamauga Creek.

The country where the battle was fought is level but thickly overgrown with small timber and brushwood, and very unfavorable for the use of artillery; very little of which was used.

The casualties in wounded are heavy, but extremely light in killed for so heavy a military engagement.

The fight on the left was one continuous roll of musketry for an hour or more. No general officers were injured. Col. How, 15th Wisconsin, and Col. Bradley, 51st Illinois, commanding brigades, were wounded. Col. James, of the 36th Ohio, and Col. Carroll and Maj. Pannella, of the 10th Indiana, were also wounded. Lieut. Jones, of company A, 10th Indiana, was killed. Lieut. Col. Hunt, of the 40th Kentucky, and Lieut. Col. Maxwell, of the 22d Ohio, were wounded. Lieut. DeGraw, Lieut. Ludlow and Lieut. Essenden, of battery E, 5th artillery, were wounded. Lieut. Floyd, of battery I, 4th artillery, and Capt. Brown, of the 31st Illinois, were wounded. Capt. Searls, assistant adjutant general of Starkweather's brigade, was killed. Battery C, of the 5th artillery, was lost, and afterwards re-captured by the 79th Indiana.

The battle is not yet over. It will probably be resumed to-morrow. Rebel prisoners taken, represent that the corps of Gen. Hill, Polk, Johnston, and Longstreet were in the engagement.

Our men are in the best of spirits and eager to begin again.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 21—12:45 A. M. Our army under Gen. Rosecrans has been badly beaten by Bragg, and compelled to retreat to Chattanooga.

Bragg has been strengthened with heavy reinforcements from Lee, Beauregard and Joe Johnston.

Military occupation of the lines will prevent the transmission of particulars to night.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 19. Dispatches from Burnside reports all quiet at Knoxville and vicinity.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 19. The American's Fortunes Monroe correspondent says there is a rumor there, which obtains belief with many, that Richmond is being evacuated.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. A Fort Monroe letter says: "The rebel General Kemper, captured at Gettysburg, is about to be exchanged for Gen. Graham, now a prisoner at Richmond."

"The iron-clad Roanoke has been put in fighting trim, owing to a rumor that rebel iron-clads are about to make an attempt to escape to sea from James river."

A Morris Island letter reports the rebels extremely busy in repairing their batteries. Steamers are constantly plying there from the city with materials for them.

A deserter says that after strengthening Sumter and planting more batteries on Morris Island, Beauregard intends to assume the offensive in earnest, if possible, to regain possession of Morris Island.

Charleston is said to be full of rebel troops. Other accounts state that it may be a week yet before Gen. Gilmore can open fire on Charleston.

The mounting of guns on the north end of Morris Island proves very slow work, under the fire from the rebel batteries on James Island, but the reports as to our losses there are conflicting.

Gen. Gilmore had issued a congratulatory order to his troops on the capture of Morris Island, in which he says: "The city and harbor of Charleston lie at the mercy of our artillery."

The explosion of a rebel magazine near Fort Johnson is confirmed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20. The Herald's Washington special says: "Recent official advices state that one of the rebel rams was ready to sail from England, and was supposed to be waiting a favorable opportunity to cross."

Gov. Curtis, of Sonora, waited upon Secretary Seward to-day. Rumor says his object is to establish, if possible, an alliance with the United States against the French in Mexico.

"Gen. Butler is about to re-enter the field."

SPECIAL TO CHICAGO TIMES.—Yesterday there was heavy skirmishing along the Rapidan, and parties from the front to-day anticipate a general engagement, though that belief does not prevail outside the army, as it is not thought that either army will cross the river. The enemy has made no flank movement on Meade, thus showing his policy to be entirely defensive, only to prevent our forces from crossing. None of our troops have crossed the river.

A general exchange of prisoners will soon commence, except colored soldiers and their officers, and the corresponding number of rebels will be exchanged for General Kemper, who will be exchanged for Gen. Graham, of New York, now in Richmond.

Gen. Schurz is here, and Gen. Butler has gone into the campaign in Pennsylvania.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21. LONDON MARKET.—Wheat 12 1/2 better for English; foreign also firm at extreme rates. Sugars quiet.

BANASTIFF.—B. Spencer Bigland reports flour 6d per barrel dearer. Wheat in good comparative demand at 2d per cent advance. Corn advanced 1/2d, mixed, close log quiet.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21. Last night a difficulty occurred on the corner of Abigail and Spring streets between some citizens and soldiers, in which three of the former were wounded.

SPECIAL TO GAZETTE.—The expedition under Gen. Crocker, from Natchez to Alexandria, captured several canons, destroyed the fortifications at Alexandria. A large quantity of stores and mules were captured.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20. The treasurer of the United States has recently received additional evidence that the two million dollars for the pay of Gen. Grant's army was actually on board the steamer Bath at the time of the fire. Much of the money has been received in a charred condition, and a commission has been appointed to extend the search for the portion still missing.

As the conflagration at Lawrence, Kansas, eight or nine packages of notes have been sent to the treasurer to be exchanged. They had been subject to the fire, but were not injured beyond identification. It seems that the chemicals employed on these notes form a coating which affords a partial protection from fire.

WASHINGTON SPECIALS state that the reported evacuation of Richmond can probably be accounted for by the fact that the rebels are withdrawing stores from the line of the Tennessee railroad, and scattering their forces south through North Carolina, towards Atlanta. This is caused by the capture of East Tennessee by Burnside.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES. The Commercial Appeal gives the following account of the Saturday's fight: The battle opened at 11 o'clock in the vicinity of Wedon Glenn, on the road leading from McMinn's Cove to Chattanooga. It soon became general, the enemy manœvering their troops freely. Early in the action the rebels made an impetuous charge on Loomis' battery; five out of his six Parrott guns were captured. Captain Van Parr, commanding the battery, was taken prisoner. At 2 o'clock the contest was terrific. The roll of musketry was most continual and deafening than at Stone River.

At four o'clock Van Cleve's division on the center had his lines broken and retreated in disorder. Col. Barnett planted his battery and soon checked the pursuing enemy, who, in turn, were driven in disorder over the same ground. Davis' division was driven back with heavy loss. Every gun of the eighth Indiana battery was captured, when his forces were rallied and he pebbled the enemy back and retook the guns. Reynolds lost heavily, but stubbornly held his position, driving the enemy, but never breaking his lines.

Palmer, who was overwhelmed, failed in bringing off his whole battery, and two guns were lost. Van Cleve, fighting gallantly, lost ground and was overpowered. He failed to regain his position. Our line, pressed severely, wavered, and the rebels, exulting over their apparent success, made the air resound with cheers. The advance was engaged on the whole line, when a withering fire of musketry rolled from right to left, and till 5 o'clock the fighting was terrific.
